Student Last Name Student First Name M.I. Date of Birth Student ID

Independent Students: Family Size - Includes the following: The student and the student's spouse, if applicable
The student's dependent children if the following are true:

- They live with the student (or live apart because of college enrollment);
- They receive more than half of their support from the student; and
- They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student during the award year.

Other persons if the following are true:

- They live with the student;
- They receive more than half of their support from the student; and
- They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student during the award year.

Dependent Students: Family Size – Includes the following: The student, the student's parents, even if the student is not living with them. Exclude a parent who has died or is not living in the household because of separation or divorce. Include a parent who is on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces apart from the family.

The student's siblings if the following are true:

- They live with the student's parent (or live apart because of college enrollment);
- They receive more than half of their support from the student's parents; and
- They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student's parents during the award year.

Other persons if the following are true:

- They live with the student's parents;
- They receive more than half of their support from the student's parents; and
- They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student's parents during the award year.

The provided criteria for "dependent children" or "other persons" align with the requirement that family size align with whom the student/parent could claim as a dependent on a U.S. tax return if the student/parent were to file a U.S tax return at the time of completing the 2025-2026 FAFSA. As a result, the student/parent should not include any unborn children in the family size.
